Oh, It's Good To Touch
 The Green Green Grass of Home
 You Are All Invited
 Kith and Kin, Friends and Neighbors
 Old and New to a Sesquicentennial Weekend

Saturday, August 17, 2013

Noon - Potluck Picnic Dinner

At the Valley Community Center in beautiful uptown Valley Wisconsin Just across the road from where Uncle Albert Breidung used to live.
 Eating, visiting, swapping stories...some of the stories might be true.

Sunday, August 18, 2013

Walk in the footsteps of your ancestors - wander through the house and commune with your old relatives, friends and neighbors who are hanging on the walls. Well, their pictures are hanging on the walls.

Day of Fun and Food on the Farm
 Come prepared to join in playing and singing the old songs from 2-3pm give or take an hour or two.

Come for an hour
 Come for a day
 Come for the weekend
 That's what I say

Come by car, carriage or sleigh
 Come by horse or jet plane
 Come by ox cart or canoe
 Walk up the valley, drop out of the blue

Inside and outside
 In every nook and Cranny
 There's room for you all
 Even your granny (and gramps)

Come with your children
 Come with your spouse
 Come with your parents
 There's room in the house (and outside)

And a hearty welcome to all
